

BUSINESS SPECIALS.
Under this head business notices will be inserted for 10 cents per each line insertion.
The Varsity Co., who opened their business in the State of Maine under the management of Mrs. Sauton, is proving itself to be a long felt want of the ladies.
L. C. Curtis repairs furniture and does upholstering as well as hard wood finishing and the varnishing of chairs. See ad.
Any one looking for warm foot wear will find just what they want at Oxford County Shoe Store, Norway, Maine.
You always get full value for your money when you buy your boots and shoes of Oxford County Shoe Store, 125 Main Street, Norway, Maine.
Have your furniture to be repaired? If at all on S. L. Currier's, opposite this office and see him about it.
Get our estimates on any line of printing. Estimates cheerfully given.
NOTARY AND VICINITY.
O. A. Goodland of Freeburg was in town Tuesday.
Mike Kervin of Canton, was in town the past week.
John J. Hayden of Mechanic Falls, has been quite sick but is now better.
Eddie McKee and wife of Stratham, Mass., have been visiting friends here.
Bound receipt books are sold at this office. Also Holmes notes.
John F. Harding now carries his haul in a still on S. L. Currier's.
A stock company has recently been organized for the manufacture of a patent oil lamp.
George Ames has moved to lower Main street, in the house formerly occupied by Maurice Kline.
The W. C. T. U. will meet with Holden on Paris St., Wednesday, Nov. 15th, at 3 o'clock.
H. Price of Freeburg with his company is putting up a store, and is doing a thriving business.
Mrs. Norris Tibbets and little son, David, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Locke.
The Universalist Circle will meet next Tuesday evening, Nov. 15, in the afternoon. Supper at 6:30. Prayers at 7 in the evening.
The Ladies' Relief Corps, S. of W. will hold a fair the coming winter. Arrangements are already being thought the exact date has not been decided.
The municipal court was adjourned one month because of the sickness of Judge C. Whitman. The Judge is slowly recovering.
Jason F. Rowe, now of Rochester, N. H., says that his father and mother each carried their golden wedding in 1871, therefore there has been six such anniversaries instead of five as reported last week.
Wm. C. Leavitt, patentee of the Leavitt Improved Boiler Handle is thinking of selling his boiler handle business to a syndicate. The business is capable of being largely developed and ought to pay a handsome dividend.
A few neighbors met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Hazelton Saturday evening Oct. 29, and formed the O. S. Reading Club with Mrs. Hazelton president, and Adelle Shattuck vice-president. About for two weeks to meet with Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Perry.
Geo. A. Cole celebrated the anniversary of his birthday recently at Camp Canisimus. His friends presented him with a nice gold chain. The following were present: Hon. A. S. Kimball, Dr. B. F. Bradbury, Geo. A. Grinn, Jr., R. Virgil, H. Cole, G. H. Sargent, W. C. Cole, E. D. Smith, C. L. C. Hathaway, E. W. Bishop, S. H. Walden, M. L. Fuller and E. W. Sanborn.
The Harvest Concert by the Universalist Sunday School occurred Sunday evening. Concert Hall was very prettily decorated, a large herd of plenty overflowed, selling his golden wedding being the prominent feature. Remarks were made by S. C. Cummings. There were solos by Mertie French and Lillian Cross, duet by Elliott, Carrie and Agnes Tucker; also recitations by Mildred Bishop, Geo. Young and Vivian Kiers. The attendance was very large.

Mrs. W. W. Twombly is sick.
The Senior class of N. H. S. elected President Geo. W. Devine.
F. R. Taylor has returned from a tour to Andover.
Mr. E. Blackford of Thomaston, was in town Tuesday.
Genevieve Winslow has been spending her days with friends in Haverhill, Mass. The billiard room at the Elm Hotel has been partially visited.
John F. Sampson of Lowell, Mass., visited in town the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Knowland are visiting in Massachusetts.
Mrs. J. M. Warren and daughter Julie returned to Portsmouth, N. H., Wednesday.
J. Wesley Swan and E. W. Hart returned from the World's Fair in Boston, Mass.
"Organs for sale here," reads the sign at Allard & Moulton's, manufacturers of clothing.
Workmen are making repairs at Beal's hotel putting it into shape for winter.
Anna Heath was in town the past week. Miss Heath was at one time assistant teacher in the Norway High School.
The Pastor Seavey recently picked some Mayflowers and presented them to Mrs. E. E. Leavitt as a gift.
Mrs. Sophia Gordon, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Paris at Norway, has returned to her home in Lowell, Mass.
Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bicknell returned from the World's Fair, Monday.
Mrs. and Miss M. Bicknell and Dr. Nettie Bennett, who has a good practice and pleasant home near Chicago.
Horace Churchill, who has been visiting at his brother's place in the neighboring town, returned to Norway last week.
The N. H. S. Lyceum organized last day of this week. James Farrow is President and Grace Holden, Sec. First meeting the first Friday evening of the winter term.
Believing that such a plan would further the best interests of the school, the authorities have decided to have a "Parents' Day" on the last Thursday of the present term of the High School. The regular term examinations are public exercises, but they are rarely attended by parents. The exercises are generally written. Thursday, Nov. 15, will be a day of regular examinations, but the school room will be the place where the examinations will be conducted, affording an excellent opportunity to interested spectators to see the methods and results of the teaching. The following will be the order: The Senior class will be examined in Latin, Greek and English, at 9 a. m. The Juniors in Rhetoric from 10:30 to noon. At 1:30 the Freshmen will be examined in English, Latin and Greek. The Sophomores in History from 3 to 4 p. m. Let as many as are interested in school and scholarship come to the examinations.
There was a fair attendance last Saturday night at the reception which the Congregational Church gave to their vestry to Mrs. Frank Kimball, who has been in Norway years past upon supranote in their choir. The choir, upon her remarks, Nov. 15, will be received by the gift of an elegant service of silver with gold lining and silver handles. Mrs. Kimball responded with the assurance that she would be glad to hold them in heartfelt remembrance. Mrs. Kimball, who was also present, bearing in mind the fact that the church would ever appreciate the kindness of the people of Norway and of the Congregational Church in particular to his wife and himself. This was followed by a treat and then a number of selections were sung by the choir, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Charles McDonald, C. W. and E. L. Horne, Mrs. H. L. Kline being accompanist and also for the reception was that Mrs. Kimball was here in a few days before she left for the city of New York and the city of New York, where her husband has been engaged in business for some months past. He was formerly the genial and popular partner in the Noyes Drug Store of this place. They have the best wishes of all the friends in Norway.

132 Main St., Norway, Me.
J. W. SWAN & CO.,
The Norway Clothiers' Headquarters for Fur Goods and select your Winter Clothing, Hats, Caps, Underwear and Furnishings.
From the Cleanest and Best Stock in Oxford County.
Do you want a Fur Coat? If so, call and look at our large stock.
We carry the North Star coat, which is considered the best on the market. Our prices are bound to suit all. A good Lap. Coat for $12; a good Siberian Dog for $18, $20, $25; and a first-class Coon from $30 to $55. Our Motto:— "Good Goods, Low Prices, Square Dealing." Remember the place,
J. W. SWAN & CO., 132 Main Street, Norway, Maine.

NEW WINTER GOODS
at
Oxford County Shoe Store.
We have a full line of winter Goods on hand—New Goods, just from the factory.
Ladies' Beaver Boots in Button, Congress and Bals.
Ladies' Beaver Congress, extra heavy and quilted.
Ladies' Beaver Bals, Felt Bottom.
Ladies' Persian Kid Button, fannel lined.
Ladies' Glove Calf, in Congress and Bals., fannel lined.
Ladies' Plush and Beaver Slippers, fannel lined.
Men's Wool Boots and Leggings, of all styles and kinds.
We also have the largest line of Fine Goods to be found in the county. Our Price is always the lowest.
OUR GOODS ARE REPRESENTED. ———— Call and look our goods over.
No trouble to show goods.

Oxford County Shoe Store.
F. W. FAUNCE, Clerk.

T. WEBB'S BLUE STORE.
Special Sale, Nov. 11-13.
Cent's Furnishings.

[illegible][illegible]

100

10

